

Birds of Prey Specialty Guided Hike

Bored at home? Want to get active and learn something new while practicing social distancing? CICS and Bruce Trail Toronto have teamed up to organize four specialty hikes in time for the fall hawk migration.

There are four specialty hikes on Saturday September 26th, October 3rd, October 10th and October 17th. The location will be at Doris McCarthy Trail at 10 am to 11:30 am, please meet at the junction of Ravine Dr. and Bellehaven Crescent. Parking will be available along the streets. You will be led on this hike by George Blennon and Brian Joyce who have years of experience in the wilderness, while also watching the birds of prey migrate in time for fall.

The cost is $20 per person for each hiking session. You will receive 50% discount at $10 per hiking session per person with purchasing of a CICS membership card ($20 per year). All Proceeds will go to CICS NEW Food Bank that is helping those most vulnerable during this pandemic. Click the PayPal link to pay: <https://cutt.ly/KfA1TiQ>

Please dress appropriately for the weather. The hikes will continue if it rains lightly, however if there is lightning or heavy rain, the hike will be cancelled and rescheduled. Bring hiking shoes, boots or running shoes and comfortable clothes for the hike. This is optional but you can bring binoculars to watch the birds closely. Of course stay hydrated and bring water and sunscreen!! For everyone's safety, please practice social distancing of 2 meters apart from everyone, wear a face mask and bring hand sanitizer! Please ensure to sign up for a spot on the Google form as there are limits of 15 people per session. You MUST also agree to the liability waiver before the hike and complete the COVID-19 Self-Assessment form which is available in the link: <https://www.cicscanada.com/dat/files/10701.docx>

If you have any questions or concerns, please email Minnie.wang@cicscanada.com. Thank you and we hope to see you at our hiking sessions!!
